

Outdoor Math Scavenger Hunt

How many things do you see that are taller than your house? _____ Name the tallest thing you can see. _____	Go to the nearest tree. Now walk to the nearest person. How many steps did you take? _____ Was your number more or less than 100? Bonus: Is that number even or odd? _____	Do you see clouds in the sky? Yes No If yes, draw what one cloud looks like.
How many first grader steps WIDE is your driveway? _____ Bonus: Looking at that number you just wrote, what is the number in the ones place? _____	How many first grader steps LONG is your driveway? _____ Bonus: Looking at the number you just wrote, what is the number in the tens place? _____	You will need a container. Have an adult time you for one minute. In one minute, how many things can you pick up? Count and record after the minute: _____
Take the items you just collected in your container and sort them: small, medium large. How many items are small? _____	Take the items you just collected in your container and sort them: small, medium large. How many items are medium? _____	Take the items you just collected in your container and sort them: small, medium large. How many items are large? _____